2.Pursuant to the directions of this Court, the parties are present today along with their respective counsel. The parties also confirmed that the balance amount, agreed to be paid to the petitioner by the respondent, has also been paid in full quits. The parties have no objection for final order being passed, dissolving the marriage between them.

3.This Court, in Tr.CMP.No.1328 of 2024, exercising powers under Article 227 of Constitution of India, transferred the pending HMOP proceedings to the file of the Sub Court, Arakkonam and converting the same under Section 13-B proceedings, proceeded to dissolve the marriage, by mutual consent.

4.I have personally enquired with the petitioner as well as the respondent. They have confirmed that they have no objection that a decree for dissolution of marriage may be passed by mutual consent. The maintenance amount that has been agreed between the parties is also paid in full and final settlement. Therefore, following the procedure adopted by this Court in Tr.CMP.No.1328 of 2024 dated 20.12.2024, HMOP.No.5516 of
