2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of prior enmity, on 16.04.2025 at about 4.15 p.m., there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant with a wooden log, causing injuries to her.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, and he has been implicated in this case; that the petitioner had also lodged a complaint against the defacto complainant and in any case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that it is a case and a case in counter; that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations; the fact that there is a counter
