2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, by fabrication and manipulation of documents, public records including the Aadhar card of the de facto complainant and impersonation, grabbed the properties belonging to the de facto complainant. Hence the case.

3. Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner, who is running a DTP center in the name of Isha Net Center at Arahandanallur, was implicated in this case only based on the confession statement obtained from the co-accused. He further submitted that the entire case is borne out by documents and that some of the co-accused have been enlarged on bail as well as anticipatory bail by this Court. He also submitted that the main accused Rajendran in this case has already been enlarged on bail and further submitted that the petitioner is in custody for more than 45 days, hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner submitted that the accused conspired together, impersonated and fabricated the documents including the Aadhar card of the de facto complainant and grabbed his property. He further submitted that the allegation against the petitioner is that he had created the forged documents for impersonating the de facto complainant and one of the accused Rajendran is the king pin, who was behind this offence. He further submitted that the investigation in this case is still pending and the deeds executed based on the forged documents were cancelled. He also submitted that several previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the fact that the co-accused have been enlarged on bail and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on
