The petitioner has filed the present Criminal Original Petition seeking to quash the FIR in Crime No.3 of 2025 on the file of the 1st respondent police.

2. The second respondent herein filed a petition under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Villupuram, in C.M.P.No. 83 of 2025, seeking a direction to register an FIR against the petitioners. The learned Magistrate, by order dated 18.02.2025, allowed the said petition and directed registration of the case. Challenging that order, the petitioners have filed a Criminal Revision Petition, which is pending consideration. In the meantime, the FIR came to be registered pursuant to the said order. Aggrieved thereby, the petitioners have filed the present Criminal Original Petition seeking to quash the FIR.

3. In view of the fact that the petitioner has already challenged the order passed by the learned Magistrate by filing a Criminal Revision Petition, the present petition seeking to quash the FIR in Crime No.3 of 2025 is not maintainable. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed, granting liberty to the petitioner to pursue the pending revision. If the petitioner is aggrieved by any order that may be passed in the said revision, it is open to him to work out his remedies in accordance with law.
