ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 281, 125(a) of BNS in Crime No.54 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that it is related to an accident in which the petitioner is involved, where it has been complained that it is a case of drunk and drive. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that it is a case of drunk and drive. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
