3. Heard the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the materials placed on record.

4. The grounds raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner do not disclose any factual error in the order dated 22.04.2025. Such grounds, if at all, can only be canvassed in an appeal and not in a petition for modification. Hence, the present petition is devoid of merit and liable to be dismissed.

5. Accordingly, the present miscellaneous petition seeking modification of the order of this Court dated 22.04.2025 is dismissed. No costs.
