(Judgment of the Court was made by R.SUBRAMANIAN, J.)

The respondent challenged her non-appointment and sought for a mandamus to direct the respondents to appoint her as Assistant Professor in Criminology against the two unfilled vacancies, pursuant to the notification dated 18.07.2018.

2.The fact that the respondent has secured the next highest mark in the recruitment process and she belonged to Backward Class community is admitted. The fact that there was one vacancy under the roster reserved for Backward Class community is also admitted. However, in view of the pendency of certain writ petitions filed by the other candidates, who belonged to the Backward Class community, the petitioner was not appointed. Those writ petitions have not been disposed of and as of today.

The petitioner is the candidate who has secured the highest marks.

Therefore, the learned single Judge has directed the petitioner to be appointed in the vacancy that was available on the date of the order. The other candidates, who were filed writ petitions namely, Tmt.V.Sivasankari and Mr.N.Sudalaimuthu have scored lesser marks than the respondent.

3. Finding that the respondent has secured highest marks and the respondent was eligible to be appointed, the learned single Judge has directed the respondent to be appointed. We therefore, see no merit in the appeal. This Writ Appeal therefore, fails and it is accordingly, dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed. The appellant / Board will issue appointment order within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
