The instant writ petition has been filed with a prayer for issuing a mandamus to direct the respondent to pay the encashment of 45 days of earned leave surrendered by the petitioner before his retirement.

2. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner was working as conductor in the respondent corporation from 16.12.1980 and retired from service on 28.02.2013 on attaining the superannuation in the cadre of Special Grade Conductor. Despite his repeated requests over several years, the payment towards encashment of 45 days of earned leave surrendered has not been made by the respondent. Hence, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that they are entitled for the difference in earned leave salary. In this connection, when they have sent RTI query, the respondent had replied vide their letter dated 17.07.2021 that the petitioner is entitled for a sum of Rs.22,854/- towards the difference in earned leave salary. Claiming the said amount, the petitioner had given a representation on 13.03.2025. However, the respondent had not settled the above amount.

4. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the respondent, though is not in a position to confirm the response of the respondent through the RTI query, would fairly submit that they would settle the difference in earned leave salary within a reasonable time according to their records.

5. In view of the above submission and also upon the reply given by the respondent dated 17.07.2021, this Court deems it appropriate to direct the respondent to settle the difference in earned leave salary of the petitioner with interest at the rate of 6% p.a. within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
