ORDER

The learned counsel for the applicant is not pressing this application since the respondent has paid the over due installments to the applicant. However, the learned counsel for the applicant also submits that in case the respondent commits default in the near future, the applicant may be granted with liberty to file a fresh application. She has also made an endorsement to that effect in the Court bundle.

2. Accordingly, this application is dismissed as not pressed. However, liberty is granted to the applicant to file a fresh application against the respondent in case the respondent commits default in the near future. No costs.
