COMMON ORDER

These petitions have been filed to grant leave to the petitioners to file review petitions against the order dated 15.04.2025 passed by this Court in W.P.Nos.13171 & 13172 of 2025.

W.M.P.Nos.24810 & 24815 of 2025 in Rev.Aplw Sr.Nos.72850 & 72851 of 2025

2. This Court ordered notice to the learned counsel, who was appearing on behalf of first respondents/writ petitioners. Pursuant to the same, the first respondents/writ petitioners have also filed a counter in both these petitions.

3. The main ground raised by learned counsel for review petitioners is that Survey No.511 has been used for burial/cremation of dead bodies for a very long period of time and already, the revenue authorities are dealing with the dispute between the writ petitioners and the village people, which was raised by the writ petitioners for survey Nos.555/1, 555/5, 555/6 and 555/7 wherein the writ petitioners have alleged that those properties have been encroached. While so, the writ petitioners approached this Court only insofar as Survey No.532 is concerned on the ground that the said property is used as a burial/cremation ground.

4. Heard Mr.N.Manokaran, learned counsel for petitioners, Mr.G.Raja, learned counsel appearing for first respondents and Mr.G.Velu, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for respondents 2 to 5.

5. In the considered view of this Court, when this Court passed the order in the writ petitions, dispute between the petitioners and the village people pertaining to survey Nos.555/1, 555/5, 555/6 and 555/7 were also taken into consideration and this Court confined itself only to Survey No.532, which was a road margin and it was found that this survey number was not designated as a burial/cremation ground. This Court also took into consideration the fact that there is sufficient space for burial/ cremation of dead bodies in Survey No.511. Hence, the ground raised by the petitioners in the review applications was in fact considered by this Court while passing order in the writ petitions.

6. In view of the above, this Court does not find any error on the face of the order passed by this Court in the writ petitions and therefore, there is no ground to grant leave to review the order passed in the writ petitions.

Accordingly, these petitions are dismissed.
