3.At this juncture, the learned Standing Counsel would fairly submit that in view of the order passed in similar writ petition, the petitioners would be eligible for 6% interest upon belated eligible payment. In respect of last 10 days salary and earned leave salary, the learned Standing Counsel would submit that the respondents would reconcile with the service register of the petitioners and if there is any due, they would make the payment.

4.In such view of the matter, this Court directs the respondents to pay 6% interest upon belated eligible payment, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. In respect of last 10 days salary and earned leave salary, the respondents are directed to verify the service register of the petitioners. If the petitioners are entitled for the same, the respondents are directed to settle the said amount along with the above payment. The writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
