CRL OP No. 14386 of 2025

ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 4(1)(c) and 4(1-A)(ii) of TN Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024 in Crime No.195 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 01.05.2025 the petitioner and the other accused was intercepted and checked they were found in possession of 46 Nos. of liquor bottles of different brands and had been using the same for sales by illegal means which has been banned by the Government. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and other accused was intercepted and checked they were found in possession of 46 Nos. of liquor bottles of different brands. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to her rights, on her own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
