2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the accused had abused the de facto complainant, assaulted him and escaped from the scene of occurrence. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, aged about 65 years, is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, however, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the
