2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have trespassed into the defacto complainant's workshop and committed theft of the defacto complainant's and also some car spare parts. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there is no previous case against the 2nd petitioner and there are some previous cases pending against the 1st petitioner registered in the state of Karnataka.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
