ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 379 of Indian Penal Code r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.18 of 2020, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 20.02.2020 at about 09.00 PM the respondent police is on patrol duty near Melatheru Ramar Temple, Paravakottai. At that time they stopped a TATA Ace bearing registration no.TN 49 AW 6768. The driver of the vehicle escaped. On searching the vehicle, it was found that the accused illegally transporting ½ unit of sand without any valid license or permission. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

WEB COPY 4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner illegally transported 1/2 unit of sand without valid permission from the Government. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
