The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 4(1)(C) of TN Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024 and Section 24 of TN Prohibition Act in Crime No.263 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 25.04.2025 at around 8.00 AM the respondent police on patrol, they found co-accused individuals selling liquor bottles of 375 ml MC Dowells brandy 10 Nos. bottle and 180 ml Mc Lene Brandy bottles 48 Nos. bottles illegally outside of a Government Liquor Shop. Upon inquiry, the co-accused disclosed that the petitioner, was owner of the liquor shop and the petitioner had instructed the co-accused to sell the liquor after the shop's closing time later the respondent police registered an FIR against the petitioner. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the co-accused individuals selling liquor bottles of 375 ml MC Dowells brandy 10 Nos. bottle and 180 ml Mc Lene Brandy bottles 48 Nos. bottles illegally outside of a Government Liquor Shop. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount
