CRL OP No. 14602 of 2025

ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 303(2) r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation Act, 1957, in Crime No.130 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accuse had illegally transported the morambu sand using a JCB vehicle.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband and the vehicle were seized.

WEB COPY 5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioners, without prejudice their rights, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioners without prejudice their rights, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
