ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 4(1)(A) of Tamilnadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024 and Section 4(1)(i) of Tamilnadu Prohibition Act, 1937 in Crime No.195 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found to be in illegal possession of 31 bottles of brandy, each containing 180 ml.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the co-accused has been released on bail by the Lower Court. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband was seized and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, co-accused has been released on bail and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of
