2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally kept illicit liquor for the purpose of sale to the general public and the respondent police have seized the said liquor from the petitioner. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, he is suffering incarceration from 13.04.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner was in illegal possession of 110 litres of ID arrack and he was arrested on 13.04.2025. He further submitted that there are three previous cases pending against him.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
