ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 r/w 303(2) of BNS, 2023, (u/s.379 of IPC) in Crime No.87 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner alleged to have transported sand in Ashok Leyland Dost mini lorry bearing Reg.No. TN 61 AA 6208 weighing 1 unit. On seeing the defacto complainant, this petitioner escaped leaving the vehicle. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner illegally transported 1 unit of sand without valid permission from the Government. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of
