2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the father-in-law of one Deepak; that the said Deepak had executed a power of attorney in favour of the defacto complainant; that the petitioner had created forged documents and attempted to grab the land from the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that it is a case of civil in nature has been given a criminal colour. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he sought for bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of bail.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.
