ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 303(ii) BNSS and under Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals Act in Crime No.195 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner went to Uthangarai to bring fertilizer for the Agricultural purposes as the shops were closed on 28.04.2025. The petitioner kept the above said tractor with tipper on the road side and the petitioner went to nearby village to the petitioner's relative's house for sleeping and the petitioner came in the next day morning to see the petitioner's tractor with tipper at Kalaignar Nagar. But unfortunately the petitioner was shocked and surprised that the vehicle was not seen there and after due search the petitioner was not able to see the petitioner's tractor with tipper at Kalaignar Nagar. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner illegally transported the Jalli Stones without valid permission from the Government. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai, Krishnagiri District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), each, with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) to the credit of Ray of Light Foundation, Account No: 50100078904233, HDFC Bank, Habibullah Road, T.Nagar, Chennai, IFSC Code: HDFC0001864, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and shall produce the said receipt before the Court below.

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of 30 days and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

CRL OP No. 14637 of 2025

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
