3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found to be in transportation of 1/4 unit of river sand through a lorry and that there are two previous cases of similar nature against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
