2.The case of the prosecution is that, on 04.05.2025 at about 5 p.m. when the defacto-complainant's husband participated in a funeral procession, the petitioner along with other accused allegedly abused the former and his companion and attempted to murder defacto-complainant's husband with a knife object hidden with them. During the alleged assault, the defacto-complainant's husband sustained injuries. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, the fact that injured has been discharged from hospital and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
