ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 406 and 420 of I.P.C in Crime No.144 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, who is the President of Magalir Self Help Kuzhu arranged a loan for a sum of Rs.50,000/- for the defacto complainant and others and subsequently she collected the monthly due from the defacto complainant and others, but she did not deposit the same with the account of the defacto complainant's loan account. The agents of Madura Finance picked up quarrels with the defacto complainant and the defacto complainant raised questions with the petitioner but she and her husband begged that they will remit the amount after obtaining loan from a company but in which company she has already availed loan and she has to pay an outstanding amount of Rs.60,000/- due to which the petitioner obtained silver anklet and 5 grams gold chain from the defacto complainant and she assured the defacto complainant that she will shortly obtain loan and dispose the problem and till such time, she will remit the dues but the petitioner and her husband did not do the same. There are two persons involved in the occurrence and the petitioner is arrayed as A1.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case for the reason to defame the name of the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruthuraipoondi, on condition that the petitioner shall
