3. The petitioner was appointed on 11.01.2013. Though she had been working in the Government service for a decade and more, her probation was not confirmed. Taking into consideration the unfortunate circumstances in which the petitioner is working, I called upon the learned Government Advocate to get instructions as to why the unfortunate situation exists and had been permitted to continue, I posted the matter today.

4. When I took the matter for hearing today, Mrs. R.Anitha, learned Special Government Pleader has produced instructions from the Additional Chief Secretary to Government vide letter No.1278/Ser-7(1)/2013, dated 20.05.2025. The instruction states that the individual had been sent for survey training and on account of that fact no training was given for the year 2016-2017 and since it was cleared on 29.01.2018, there has occasioned a delay. The instruction further reveals that after obtaining approval from the Human Resources Management Department, appropriate orders confirming the probation will be passed within four weeks.
