2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, the accused had abused the de facto complainant in filthy language, and assaulted him. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
