2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found illegally transporting $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand in a bullock cart, without valid permit. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal transportation of $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand in a bullock cart, without any valid permission from the competent authority. He further submitted that the petitioner has 3 previous cases, pending against him. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, the petitioner has no previous case pending against him and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice to his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to
