3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons. He also submitted that the petitioners are in no way connected with the alleged offence. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioners were in illegal possession of 2520 Tapentadol tablets without any permit. He further submitted that the respondent police has recovered 2500 tablets from A1 and there are 3 previous cases against A1 and no previous case against A3. A4 is said to have given these tablets to these petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioners and the petitioners themselves are ready to abide by any condition, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on his executin; or a
