The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 296(b), 118(1), 351(2) of BNS Act, in Crime No.299 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and his step father Sampath have a civil dispute with the first petitioner over a property. On 10.05.2025, the defacto complainant along with his family members visited the subject property to monitor the shed work, at that time, the petitioners assaulted and threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that on 10.05.2025, the defacto complainant and Sampath, along with rowdy elements, assaulted the petitioners and robbed cash and valuables and also threatened with dire consequences, for which they also lodged a complaint before the respondent police in Crime No. 298 of 2025. the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I,
