(Crime No.200 of 2024)

... Respondent

PRAYER: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, pleaded to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police in Crime No.200 of 2024 pending investigation on the file of Inspector of Police, Villupuram, Taluk
Police Station,
Villupuram District.

For Petitioners : Mr.T.Sarayu

For Respondent : Mr.A.Gopinath,

Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 379, 430 of IPC r/w 21(1) of Mines

Crl.OP.No.15579 of 2025

& Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.200 of WEB COURT 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is found engaged in unauthorized loading and transportation of river sand in two mini-trucks . Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to the defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner has illegally transported two units of river sand, without any valid permission from the competent authority and there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence and the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.I, Villupuram, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a
