... Petitioner-

VS-

The State Represented by,
The Inspector of Police,
Negamam Police Station,
Coimbatore District.
Crime No. 118 of 2025.

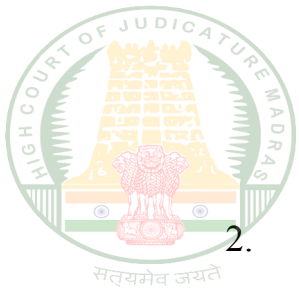

... Respondent

PRAYER: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, pleased to enlarge the petitioner on Anticipatory bail in the event of her arrest in Crime No. 118 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police

For petitioner : Mr.G Ilamurugu
For Respondent : Mr.A.Gopinath,
Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 303(2) of BNS Act r/w 21(1) of the Mines & Minerals (Development Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.118 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found illegally transporting three units of gravel sand without valid permit. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is the owner of the lorry and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal transportation of three units of gravel sand, without any valid permission from the competent authority. He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous case, pending against her. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to her rights, on her own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

7. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, the petitioner has no previous case pending against her and considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice to her rights, on her own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust and also considering other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of
