2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner and the victim are having love affair with each other and on 19.03.2025, the petitioner took the victim from her house and stayed along with her in his relative's house and subsequently, he married the victim and had physical relationship with her. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner and the victim are having love affair with each other and the petitioner married the victim and in such circumstances, the de-facto complainant had given a false complaint against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and he is in judicial custody from 04.04.2025 and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner has love affair with the victim, who is a minor aged about 16 years and he married her. Hence, he opposed
