Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, pleased to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police in Crime No.44 of 2025 pending investigation on the file of the respondent police.

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 69 and 351(3) of BNS Act, in Crime
No.44 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 1st petitioner is alleged to have had physical relationship with the defacto complainant by making false promise that he will marry her and later refused to marry the defacto complainant. On questioning the same, the petitioners 2 and 3 joined with the 1st petitioner and threatened her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners 2 and 3 have threatened the defacto complainant when she gave a complaint and that the 1st petitioner refused to marry her after having physical relationship with her. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners 2 and 3 with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners 2 and 3 are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial
