bail in Crime No.154 of 2025 registered for the offence under Section 296

(b), 115 (2), 118 (1), 351 (3) of B.N.S. Act.

2.It is the case of the prosecution that the first petitioner is the son-in-law of the defacto-complainant; due to matrimonial dispute, the first petitioner attacked the defacto-complainant, upon which he sustained injury. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions further submitted that injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of allegations and the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Paramathy, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the first petitioner shall report before the jurisdictional Magistrate from Monday to Friday at 10.30 a.m., and shall appear before the respondent police on Saturday and Sunday at 10.30 a.m., for two weeks; the second and fourth petitioner shall report before respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m for one week; thereafter as and when required for interrogation; the third petitioner shall report before the respondent Police as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court
