2.It is the case of the prosecution that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant with regard to purchase of food, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, threatened him of dire consequences, assaulted him with hands and wooden logs and caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the petitioner also lodged a counter complaint against the defacto complainant in Crime No.261 of 2025. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and sought for anticipatory bail.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and confirmed that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that a counter complaint was lodged against the defacto complainant.
