2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence, due to family dispute, the petitioner stabbed his father with knife on his chest and shoulder, as a result of which, he sustained grievous injuries and later, he died in the hospital. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner is none other than the son of the deceased and due to family dispute, the petitioner attacked his father with knife and due to excessive bleeding, he died and there is no criminal intention or motive. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is suffering incarceration from 22.04.2025 and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.
