IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED: 15-07-2025

CORAM

THE HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE M. NIRMAL KUMAR

CRL OP No. 15752 of 2025

P. Harish

Petitioner(s)

Vs

The State by

Inspector of Police (SHO), City Crime

Branch-1, CCB Police Station,

Coimbatore.

Respondent(s)

PRAYER

This Criminal Original Petition is filed under Section 482 of BNSS Act 2023 to release the petitioner on bail at the time of arrest at the hands of the petitioner in Crime No.06 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police.

For Petitioner(s): M/s. T. Saikrishnan for Mr.V.Kamal

For Respondent(s): M/s. Leonard Arul Joseph
Selvam GA (Crl. Side)

For Intervener: Mr.R.Prabakar

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 316(2), 318, (4), 351(2) &

61(2) of BNS 2023 in Crime No.6 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused approached the defacto complainant, stating that they were doing business under the name and style of M/s. Sivakami Floritech India at Nilgiris, involved in exporting flowers and selling them in the local market. They stated that to expand their business, they required a loan and additional funds and promised to share the profits with the defacto complainant, if he invested in their business and they also assured repayment of the loan amount within six months. Relying on these promises, the defacto complainant transferred a total sum of Rs.6,55,00,000/- from different account. However, the petitioner and other accused did not fulfil their promises and diverted the borrowed funds for other purposes. When the defacto complainant demanded repayment and profit share, the petitioner and other accused criminally intimidated and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioner is ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and further submitted that the co-accused in this case were arrested and granted bail by the lower Court and however, opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the Intervenor raised strong objection for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating the gravity of offence.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned counsel for the intervenor and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.
