2.It is the case of the prosecution that due to previous enmity, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, threatened him of dire consequences and assaulted him with hands and wooden logs and caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been foisted. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and sought for anticipatory bail.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate I, Vellore, on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioners 2 to 5 shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of one week and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation and the 1st petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala reported in [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
