3. The petitioner-firm states that it proceeded with construction after obtaining plan sanction on 29.01.2010. It is further stated that an application for regularisation was filed thereafter. Since a lock and seal notice was issued on 09.01.2024, it is stated that the petitioner filed a special revision petition on 09.04.2025 under Section 80-A of the Act. It is also stated that a stay application was filed along with such petition.

4. Learned Special Government Pleader submits that the special revision petition would be considered and disposed of on merits, within eight weeks. He also submits that the stay application would be considered and disposed of within a reasonable time, if fixed by this Court.

5. The petitioner has placed on record the special revision petition dated 09.04.2025 along with the acknowledgement dated 09.04.2025. The said revision petition is accompanied by a stay application under Section 80-A(3) of the Act.
