2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant, on hearing the cry of her sister over phone, went to his sister's house, along with his uncle and found that the family members of her mother-in-law have abused in filthy language and also assaulted her and her son. They had pushed the two wheeler of the defacto complainant. They had also abused the defacto complainant's family members. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case; that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration the submission of both sides, nature of the allegations and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Poonamallee on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on proof of payment of deposits, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10:30 a.m., for a period of two months and thereafter as and when required.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or
