possession of banned tobacco products weighing 14.400 Kgs. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police while opposing to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the case of the prosecution and submitted that the investigation is pending.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel on either side and also considering all others factors, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from
