2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a wordy quarrel the petitioners assaulted the de facto complainant with bricks and abused him in filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case; that there is case in counter and custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Further, considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Cr.No.331 of 2025, without prejudice to the right of defence before the Trial Court and making it clear that it would not amount to admission of guilt.
