2.The case of the prosecution is that the due to a wordy quarrel, the petitioner assaulted the de facto complainant on his face with hands and abused him in filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence and he has been falsely implicated in this case and custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the submission of both sides, nature of the allegations and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XIII
