2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were found illegally transporting ordinary rough stones of 18 tonnes, without valid permit. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case; that the first petitioner is the Driver of the lorry and the second petitioner is the owner of the lorry. He further submitted that the petitioners, without prejudice to the defence and contention, are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/-, to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the contraband were seized.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Further, considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Tamil Nadu Advocate's Clerk's Association', Account Name:Tamil Nadu Advocate's Clerk's Association, Account No.484026006, Branch:Indian Bank, High Court, IFSC NO.IDIB000M157 without prejudice to the right of defence before the Trial Court and making it clear that it would not amount to admission of guilt.

7. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the contraband were seized, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vanur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the
