2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 15 grams of Ganja. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that when the police based on a secret information, went to arrest the petitioner, at that time he had thrown the packet of Ganja and ran to the top of the house and had inflicted himself with a blade, due to which he sustained cut injury and has been taking treatment at Stanley Hospital Chennai and he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
