Mr.T.K. Saravanan, learned Additional Government Pleader accepts notice for the respondents.

2. By consent of learned counsel on both sides, this writ petition is taken up for final hearing in the admission stage itself.

3. This writ petition has been filed seeking for quashment of the impugned transfer order issued by the 2nd respondent to the petitioner, vide Proceedings in No.9457/PO1/2025, dated 25.05.2025 and subsequently to permit the petitioner to continue his duty as Grade I Warden at Central Prison Salem.

4. It is stated that initially the petitioner was appointed as Grade II Warden and posted in Sub-Prison, Omalur, Salem and subsequently in the year 2022, he was promoted as Grade I Warden and transferred to Central Prison, Salem and working as such. When that be so, on 25.05.2025, the 2nd respondent has issued the impugned order, dated 25.05.2025, thereby he was transferred to Central Prison, Cuddalore in an existing vacancy.

Aggrieved over the same, this writ petition has been filed.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that without assigning any proper reasons, the impugned transfer order was issued to the petitioner. Further, he submitted that before issuing the impugned proceedings, neither counselling for mutual transfer was conducted nor sufficient opportunity was given to the petitioner by the 2nd respondent. He also submitted that all of a sudden, the impugned proceedings was issued to the petitioner, which caused great mental agony to the petitioner as well as to petitioner's family members and therefore, the impugned order is perverse and bad in law. Also he submitted that the petitioner's mother has recently underwent a surgery and petitioner is having one school going kid as well as one infant and therefore, subsequent to issuance of the impugned order, the petitioner has submitted representation, dated 28.05.2025 to the 2nd respondent, wherein, the petitioner's grievances have been redressed. Further, he submits that though very many grounds have been raised, the petitioner restricts the prayer sought for herein and it would suffice, if a direction may be issued by this Court to the respondents to consider the petitioner's representation, dated 28.05.2025 on merits and in accordance with law.

6. Mr.T.K. Saravanan, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents submitted that based on the vacancy position available and only after following the rules prescribed, the transfer order, dated 25.05.2025 was issued by the 2nd respondent and therefore, the same is legally sustainable. However, he has no objection, if this Court issues any directions to the 2nd respondent to consider the petitioner's representation, dated 28.05.2025 and pass orders on merits and in accordance with law.

7. Heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

8. Considering the fair submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, this Court without going into the merits of the case, directs the respondents 1 and 2 to consider the petitioner's representation, dated 28.05.2025 seeking for transfer and pass orders on merits and in accordance with law. The said exercise to be completed as expeditiously as
