ORDER

An order dated 26.04.2024 is challenged in this writ petition primarily on the ground that the petitioner's replies were not taken into consideration.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that a show cause notice was issued in respect of the three alleged defects. The petitioner replied thereof on 27.01.2024 and also appeared in person before the respondent. He also submits that very limited time was provided to the petitioner to present all relevant material.

3. Mr.T.N.C. Kaushik, learned Additional Government Pleader, accepts notice for the respondent. By referring to the impugned order, he points out that multiple opportunities were provided to the petitioner as indicated therein. He also submits that the petitioner was called upon to comply with the requirements of Circular No.183/2022 in respect of the difference in input tax credit as between GSTR-3B and GSTR-2A returns. In view of the non-compliance, he submits that the tax proposal was confirmed.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is now in a position to comply with the requirement of Circular No.183/2022, if provided another opportunity. He also submits that the petitioner agrees to remit 25% of the disputed tax demand indicated in the impugned order as a condition for remand.

5. Since the petitioner was denied input tax credit under the impugned order only on account of non-compliance of Circular No.183/2022, it is just and necessary that the petitioner be provided another opportunity subject to putting the petitioner on terms.

6. Therefore, subject to the petitioner remitting 25% of the disputed tax demand indicated in the impugned order, the impugned order is set aside and the matter is remanded for reconsideration. The petitioner is directed to remit the said 25% of the disputed tax demand within four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Upon receipt thereof, the respondent is directed to provide reasonable opportunity to the petitioner and issue fresh order within three months from the date of receipt of the 25% remittance.
