2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant as a result of which, the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and also attacked her father with wooden log. Hence the case.

However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
