The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 and 303(2), 62 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.102 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused unlawfully quarried and cut stones from a patta land (Survey No.43/2N2) and government porambokku land (Survey No.43/3) without authorization. The accused allegedly used Tractor bearing Reg.No.TN 16 B 4187 to transport the stones. The case was registered based on a complaint by the Zonal Tahsildar, Omalur Taluk, Salem District. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioner is ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the contraband and the Tractor was seized from the accused and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either sides, the contraband was seized from the accused and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
